

Professional Service: What Does Not Require Approval under the Outside Activities and Conflicts policy

Preparation of scholarly publications

Peer review of articles and grant proposals

Editorial services for educational or professional organizations

Conducting workshops for U.S. non-profit professional societies

Participation in, and presentations for, U.S. non-profit professional societies

Seminars, lectures, or teaching engagements with a U.S. federal, state, or local government agency

Seminars, lectures or teaching engagements with a U.S. college, university, health center or affiliated research institution

Service or advisor position on committees or evaluation panels for U.S. government funding agencies, non-profit foundations, or non-profit educational organizations

Service or advisor position on committees or review panels for a U.S. college, university, health center or affiliated research institution

Unpaid service with accreditation agencies (e.g., AAALAC, AAHRPP, etc.)

Unpaid grand rounds to discuss clinical care

Unpaid Continuing Medical Education (CME) activities

Reimbursed travel, sponsored or paid for by a U.S. federal, state or local government agency

Reimbursed travel, sponsored or paid for by other public institutions in the United States, including a U.S. college, university, health center or affiliated research institution

Musical or other creative performances and exhibitions

Other activities or relationships that are unrelated to your scientific field and/or work at Ohio State