Hi Krisanthe,

Thanks for letting me crash the party yesterday! I hope that the conversation went well.

I'd welcome the opportunity to connect to learn more about your work and see if there are ways that the Glenn College can be supportive.

We offer two primary programs to serve military and military connected students. The first is our

The second is our newly launched Service to Service program for military connected students interested in pursuing a career in public service at the state and local level.

Hi Krisanthe,

I'll be out of the country for the next ten days and I don't think anyone will be in Page Hall until the week of Jan. 6. I believe the building will be locked next week.

You are always welcome to work in the common spaces and connect to the wifi. We don't have any empty offices right now, but there will be lots of tables available in the common areas that first week of classes.

Happy holidays!

Hi Trevor...

I plan on returning to Columbus right after Christmas to prep for a very busy month of projects.

Until I settle into a permanent landing pad in Columbus....

is page hall main entrance open starting 12/30 & after to work from since has strong wifi?

Is there by any chance a possibility of an unoccupied desk or conference room in your area I could work for a few hours without disturbing anyone?

Trevor,

Tell me about your feelings on this request. It seems like the expectation would be for you to meet and record a podcast episode on January 17th. Your calendar may presently “appear” empty, but it is not. Patti and I will be moving multiple meetings to make up for the time you are away among other meetings and requests. Let me know if this is a priority that must work within her defined timeframe..

Thanks Trevor!

I'd like to discuss the latest developments with the podcast & my org.

I'd like to discuss my advisory board, the possibility of my work being introduced in DC at a higher level, you being a guest at the VIP event & play on Jan. 17...as well as scheduling your cohost episode of The Callout.

Hope to see you soon after your return.

Safe travels! Happy New Year!

Hi Krisanthe,

I'll be out of the country for the next ten days and I don't think anyone will be in Page Hall until the week of Jan. 6. I believe the building will be locked next week.

You are always welcome to work in the common spaces and connect to the wifi. We don't have any empty offices right now, but there will be lots of tables available in the common areas that first week of classes.

Happy holidays!

Hi Trevor...

I plan on returning to Columbus right after Christmas to prep for a very busy month of projects.

Until I settle into a permanent landing pad in Columbus....

is page hall main entrance open starting 12/30 & after to work from since has strong wifi?

Is there by any chance a possibility of an unoccupied desk or conference room in your area I could work for a few hours without disturbing anyone?

Kindest regards,
Krisanthe

President Carter,

To say thank you for all of yours, and your invaluable faculty's, support doesn't even come close to describing my overwhelming gratitude!

Along with you...everyone copied has been instrumental in the ongoing success of The Callout's mission to bring Veteran's into utility careers asap. It would be a tremendous honor to host your amazing group of OSU humans at our VIP Event.

We have 12 seats reserved for OSU. If anyone in this email is unable to attend, please feel free to extend the invitation to someone else you know. The invitation can be to folks outside of OSU too.

Please find attached a LinkedIn post for the promotional campaign of "Last Out". We appreciate OSU distributing this post far and wide with the play information in support of the mission.

Below are the details of the VIP event & the play.
I'm available on my cell phone for anyone who needs assistance leading up to and the day of the event.

Hi Krisanthe,

Forgive the delay in responding – last week was consumed by events on campus.

I'm in DC today and tomorrow and then will be heading back there next week. I've included Regina in hopes that we can find a time to connect. It may have to be over zoom.

Hi Trevor- this month took off like a rocket! I'm circling back to bring you up to speed on the latest.

Our first scheduled podcast recordings with WOSU are 4/23. We're knocking out 2 episodes while we have the studio.

The episodes are in prep for an incredible power utility event mid May in Richmond, VA. The Callout is a major organizer for veteran workforce development event & sponsor.

President Carter is joining to promote all transitioning military/veterans (including OSU higher ed) into utilities and a keynote for the awards banquet.

I'd like to discuss the podcast, my work with Jason Lemmon, Kevin Cullen, OSU & military & other drone teams participation sooner than later.

Contemplation of your participation in the podcast & event would be greatly appreciated.

Are you available for a 20-30 minute web call this week or next?

Hi Trevor -

I'd appreciate an opportunity to catch up one on one with you. I'd like to discuss you joining an episode of the podcast, as well as events I'll be hosting at NVMM, in Spring 2026.

Would you have time 15 minutes in the next week or so for a call?
